
JANUARY 30, 1806.

Read the first and second time, and committed to a committee of the whole House, to-morrow.

A Bill,

For altering the time for holding the circuit court in the district of North-Carolina.

1 Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the 3 circuit court now holden for the district of North-Carolina, on the 4 fifteenth day of June, shall commence and be holden on the 5 day of the same month. And that all actions, suits, process,
6 pleadings, and other proceedings of what nature or kind soever,
7 civil or criminal, commenced or to commence in the said court,
8 and all recognizances returnable to the said court on the fifteenth 9 day of June, shall be continued returned to, and have day in the 10 session to be holden by this act, and the same proceedings shall be 11 had thereon as heretofore, and shall have all the effect, power and 12 virtue as if the alteration had never been made. Provided, never- 13 theless, That when the day of June shall happen on 14 Sunday, the next shall be the first juridical day.

1 Sect. 2. Be it further enacted, That all acts and parts of acts
2 coming within the purview of this act, shall be and is hereby re-
3 pealed.